

Oh Baby!

Writer Guidelines

Are you a mom – or dad – with a voice? Are you interested in sharing your experiences? We want to read your stories!

Babies. We love them. We also love the mommies and daddies who give them life, and nurture them. Being a parent is a tough job, and the best way to get through the early years is with the support of other parents. Whether they have teenagers, newborns, or both every parent has something to say - just like you. Moms are each other's best support group, and we want to bring you all the information we can to make your experience better.

What do we want?

We want articles written by moms for moms. Whether you're an expert, a self-proclaimed expert, or a woman experiencing her first pregnancy, we care about your experience and would love for you to share it with Canada through our print magazine, and with the rest of the world through our website.

How much time do you have? How much do you have to say? We're flexible. Send us a word document that ranges from 250 to 800 words in length.

Keep your tone light, honest and easy to read. Our readers are made up of mostly new moms who are often exhausted, overworked and being pulled from all areas of life, and pregnant moms who are excited and looking for information.

Submit your piece to editorial@ohbabymagazine.com and include the following:

- Name
- Address - so we can send you copies of your story in print!
- Author Bio (don't forget to include your website, 1-800 number, or book title – if you have one!)
- Contact numbers
- Your article - including a title - in a word document

Once your article is submitted to Oh Baby! Magazine, we can edit it to fit our publication, run it in print or online and we can use it for any promotional endeavors under the Oh Baby! Magazine name. No worries, we will ALWAYS credit you properly and send you a notification when it is used.

Oh Baby! Magazine – although it is available nation wide, is run by a very small company. Unfortunately, this means that we are not in the position to pay for editorial – YET. But we will promote you in any way we can.
